Important - please note the following points:

To be a volunteer you must be a member of the WRA and quote your membership number above. If you are not yet a member, you can join at the induction session. Acceptance as a volunteer is dependent on your signing the WRA's Volunteer Agreement. For certain tasks you may be legally required to provide more information: you will be advised if this is the case.

The Induction Coordinator will contact you shortly. You will be sent some information about the various Departments of the Railway and be invited to attend one of the induction sessions for new volunteers. If you have not heard from the Induction Coordinator within one month, please contact the Wensleydale Railway Office.
